

1568

Peace of Longjumeau, followed by outbreak of Third War of Religion.

Revolt in Netherlands by Lewis of Nassau.

Execution of Egmont and Hoorn.
Mary, Q. of Scots takes flight to England where she is held Prisoner for 18 years

Eric of Sweden deposed by his brother

1568

Lamoral, Count of Egmont (1522-68) Rankes as one of the martyrs of Flemish freedom. As governor of Flanders he was at once conciliatory and firm, but patriotism, conflicting with loyalty to Philip II of Spain brought him to the scaffold

1568

1912 Dates J-BK

(1531? - 1570) James Stuart, Earl of Murray, Scotch statesman. Son of James V of Scotland. When Mary was invited to become Queen of Scotland, Lord James Stuart was for a few years her chief minister. Seeing that the marriage of Mary with Darnley meant Catholic supremacy, he took arms to oppose the union; was defeated; and fled to take refuge in England (1565). In 1568

he defeated Mary's forces at LANGSIDE, near Glasgow. He met his death by assassination

1568

ERASTIANISM

ecclesiastical theory formulated 1568 by Thomas Erastus (born Thomas Hieber) (Sep 7, 1524 - Dec 31, 1583).